Kurubarahalli Survey No.4 & Alanahalli Survey No.41

Govt. Order to delete B-Kharab from MUDA Layouts by month-end: MLA Ramdas

Krishnaraja MLA S.A. Ramdas addressing a press conference in city this morning as (from right) Corporators B.V Manjunath, Shivakumar and M.C. Ramesh look on.

Mysuru, Feb. 9 (RKB&BCT)- Even as residents of Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) Layouts in Kurubarahalli Survey No.4 and Alanahalli Survey No.41 have planned a 'Bengaluru Chalo' on Feb.11 to meet officials and Ministers concerned to discuss the inordinate delay in deleting 'B-Kharab' classification of the said lands, Krishnaraja MLA S.A. Ramdas has announced that the Government Order to delete the B-Kharab classification will be issued a week after Feb. 25.

Addressing a press conference at Pathrakarthara Bhavan in city this morning, Ramdas said that the State Advocate General has considered the legal aspects of the case in the light of many petitions pending in Karnataka High Court and has conveyed his opinion to the State Government.

"The Advocate General's opinion is favourable to the residents of the layouts and a Government Order will be issued within one week after Feb. 25," the MLA said.

B.P. Manjunath clarifies

However, BJP National Council Member and former Karnataka Exhibition Authority Chairman B.P. Manjunath, who is spearheading the cause of residents, said that the Advocate General had already given his favourable opinion to the previous Government led by Siddharamaiah and as a result, the Siddharamaiah Government had taken a Cabinet decision to leave out Siddarthanagar and Alanahalli, K.C. Nagar, J.C. Nagar and Income Tax Layouts from 'B-Kharab' classification.

SOM Edu Fair helps parents make intelligent choice: Tumkur Varsity VC

Tumkur University VC Prof. Y.S. Siddegowda (third from right) being taken around SOM Edu Fair stalls at Maharaja's College Grounds this morning by VVET Chairman Vasu as others look on.

Mysuru, Feb. 9 (OSR)- Tumkur University Vice-Chancellor Prof. Y.S. Siddegowda has said that Education Fairs like the Star of Mysore Education Fair being held at Maharaja's College Grounds in city is a must-visit for all people associated with education. "It helps parents and children make an intelligent and well-informed choice," he said.

Prof. Siddegowda visited the three-day SOM Education Fair this morning and appreciated the novel initiative. Addressing the gathering, he said that the fair brings together schools, teachers, parents, students and educationists for exchange of ideas under one roof. "Such fairs make parents to make informed decisions and at the same time make schools to be more innovative," he added.

"In this age of competition, such fairs encourage educational institutions to make changes in infrastructure, curriculum, facilities provided to students by looking at other schools. In this way, parents can expect the best from schools and also have a wider choice," he said. More and more such fairs must be organised, he opined

Building broken backbone

Occasions for celebrating various landmark events on national scale, particularly the country's Independence Day and Republic Day seem to be the favoured choice of public speakers of different backgrounds in general and netas in particular to unfailingly chant the farmer-centric mantra that the masses sweating and toiling in the field to fill the nation's food basket are the real backbone of the country. A renowned Kannada poet even typified the farmer as negilayogi (one who symbolises the plough). A former President of India, in a show of sympathetic concern for the rustics, reeling in poverty, ill health, ignorance and debt, prescribed in 2006 providing urban amenities to rural areas as a strategy for rural development in India, which earned the-then-popular-now-forgotten acronym PURA. Some measures were initiated by the government, including formulation of policy guidelines and allocation of funds for generating employment and enhance rural prosperity.

Much water has flowed under the bridge during the past 15 years after action began to provide roads and drinking water in the villages. Given the spread of nearly 6,00,000 villages across the country, the inputs into making most of the villages hospitable, even inhabitable, were far short of the needs to meet the target. If a fraction among the villages have witnessed perceptible change over years, the credit must go to the residents of the respective villages themselves.

Flow of public funds for implementing most of the projects, particularly to improve old infrastructure and create new ones, has been overwhelmingly urban-centric. The glitzy multi-storeyed structures, both for dwelling and carrying out business coming up in virtually all cities, including Mysuru mock at the thatched huts which house a large section of the toiling rustics even to this day. Facilities to meet the drinking water needs, education of rural children even at primary and secondary levels, shelter with basic comfort, care of the ageing farmers, employment opportunities, storing agro produce, marketing the horticultural crops at remunerative price, roads connecting villages with urban spaces and electricity are yet to be accessed by the rustics. The latest measure of providing cooking gas to the rural poor is a great landmark measure by the government.

Urbanites seem to have stepped up their preoccupation with violent road shows, criminal acts with no holds barred, rape, financial frauds and so on provoking a remark questioning their moral right to avail the labour of rustics. The land's present genre of netas have mastered the art of polarising people to win in polls and wrecking the nation, mocking at their slogan of calling the rustics as the country's backbone, clearly broken.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

You often hear that the future is in the hands of the younger generation. Is this so? Or is it that younger generations are also so heavily conditioned by the past — of which they may not be conscious at all — that they revolt only superficially against the established order? This superficial revolt gives them a certain vitality and freshness which is mistaken for a new beginning. Every generation has been more or less in revolt against the past, but they are soon trapped by the past, by the society, culture in which they have lived.

Woman divorces three minutes after marriage

Kuwait: A woman, who got married at a courthouse in Kuwait has divorced her husband just three minutes after getting married.

Last month, Kuwaiti media reported the bizarre case of a couple who ended their marriage before even leaving the Courthouse they got married in. The two had just signed their marriage contract in front of a judge and were walking out of the Courthouse when the bride accidentally tripped. Instead of helping her up, the groom reportedly insulted his wife by calling her "stupid" for slipping.

That was apparently was too much for the woman to bear, so she turned around and asked the judge to dissolve their marriage on the spot. They had been married for only three minutes.

Woman hatches duck egg bought from restaurant

Kuala Lumpur: A Malaysian woman, who had bought a fertilised duck egg from a restaurant and hatched using a makeshift incubator ended up with a pet duck.

39-year-old Erica Lim from Kuala Lumpur, bought two years ago, from a Vietnamese restaurant in the town of Puchong. Well, actually, she bought an uncooked fertilized egg used for 'balut, ' a controversial Asian snack that consists of a cooked partially-developed duck embryo.

There was supposed to be a partially developed chick inside it already, but the woman was skeptical, so she decided to see for herself.

But instead of cracking the shell, she took the egg home with her and put it in a incubator made out of a styrofoam box and some heat lamps. Two weeks later, she became the "mother" of an adorable duckling.

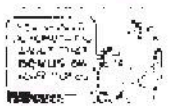
What causes moles to appear on the skin?



Moles, or nevi, are actually a form of benign tumour. They are composed of a class of cells called melanocytes. A tumour is nothing more than an excessive growth of cells. It doesn't have to be cancer. DNA damage or random mutation can cause a mole to form.

 Health Capsules is not intended to be of a diagnostic nature.*

Paediatric Hand & Foot Surgery performed at Apollo Hospital

Mysuru, Feb. 9 (KS) - Two children with Epidermolysis Bullosa, an extremely rare condition (affecting one child in one million births) which makes the skin so weak that the skin tears if one pinches it, were successfully operated upon at Apollo BGS Hospital in city recently.

While Khadeeja was from Oman, Deekshit was from K.R. Pet. Khadeeja was brought to the hospital with the rare condition and was successfully operated.

Six-year-old Deekshit from K.R. Pet came to the hospital with all fingers stuck to each other like a ball. He could not eat food, wear clothes or do anything without help from his parents. He was operated by Senior Plastic Surgeon Dr.H.V. Satish with great difficulty and some of his fingers were made free. He can now write with his hand and eat food with a spoon.

Dr. Satish has been operating on children with birth defects for over 20 years now and is a specially trained Plastic Surgeon who has operated on more than 4,000 children with different birth defects. Apollo BGS Hospital has the infrastructure and anaesthesia expertise to offer the best safety.

Foot and Hand deformities affect 30 out of every 10,000 children. That means in the neighbouring few districts there could be around 25,000 people with such problems. Most of the time, the parents wait for the children to grow up. Surgery before the age of one year is ideal in many cases.

SOM has set a new standard for exhibitions in Mysuru

Sir,

I was at the Star of Mysore Education Fair yesterday and went around all the stalls. I was pleasantly surprised by the superb way in which the entire Fair has been organised.

I have myself been a Chairman for two major Expos in Mysore — IFCON '98 at CFTRI and Integrate '99 at Chamundi Vihar Stadium by CII — both of which took months of planning and was truly world class.

I would like to commend SOM and Team for setting a new standard for exhibitions in Mysuru. The air-conditioned exhibition hall and fully-carpeted area of the Exhibition Grounds and that the stalls focused only on education and allied services is the highlight of the Fair. The cultural activities by the schools added fervour to the Edu Fair.

Call centre employee alleges gang-rape

Case registered at Nazarbad Police Station; Manhunt launched to arrest four accused

Mysuru, Feb.9 (OSR)- Even as the City Police is striving hard to bring down crime rate in city, a gang rape has been reported in Nazarbad Police limits, sending shock-waves among residents.

A girl has complained to the Police that she has been gang-raped by her friend and his accomplices.

In her complaint, the 20-year-old girl, a call centre employee and a resident of J.P. Nagar, has told the Police that last Sunday, she had been to eat pani-puri near the entrance of Chamundi Hill at Thavarekere Arch Gate on the Lalitha Mahal Road at around 9.30 pm.

As it was dark and in the absence of transport facilities, the girl called her friend Chirag from her mobile phone and requested him to drop her to her home.

Chirag readily obliged and brought his car to the place and picked her up.

The girl told the Police that Chirag drove the vehicle for some distance and then stopped where three of his friends got into the car. When she questioned about this, he told her that he would drop his friends first and then drop her to her house.

The girl narrated in her complaint that Chirag was driving in an unfamiliar route and as it was pitch dark, she could not identify the road. She, however, suspected that the car was moving towards T. Narasipur.

Narrating her ordeal, the girl, in her Police complaint, has alleged that Chirag drove her to a deserted place and asked her to get down from the car. Chirag and friends then allegedly injured her at various parts of her body using a blade.

After the physical abuse, Chirag and his friends took turns to rape her. Later, the accused abandoned her at the same place and drove away, she alleged in her complaint.

The girl told the Police that she somehow got into another vehicle and reached Cheluvamba Hospital and got herself admitted for treatment. Apart from her friend Chirag, she did not know the other three persons.

The girl, who had got admitted to the hospital on Sunday night, finally went to the Nazarbad Police Station at 2.15 am on Friday accompanied by the staff of Woman and Child Welfare Department, filed a written complaint.

Inspector Mahadevaiah has registered a case under IPC Section 376-D (where a woman is raped by one or more persons constituting a group or acting in furtherance of a common intention) and 324 (voluntarily causing hurt by dangerous weapons or means). A manhunt has been launched to arrest the accused.

A total of 16 cases had been registered earlier in the district and 133 litres different brands of liquor and 62,250 litres of beer worth Rs.1.5 lakh had been recovered which were all destroyed at the Excise Superintendent Office in Nazarbad.

This illicit liquor was recovered while they were being distributed during the last elections and also by raiding a few shops.

The recovered illicit liquor was destroyed according to rules, said the Excise staff.

Excise Deputy Superintendent Thamanna, Inspector Manjunath and others were present.

Man, woman end life over alleged affair

Mysuru, Feb.9 (RK&DM)- Reportedly unable to face the society over their alleged affair, a married man and a married woman ended their life by hanging self at Challahalli in Bilikere hobli of Hunsur taluk late on Thursday night.

The deceased have been identified as Shantaraju (35) and Shantha (32), both of Challahalli village.

The two were married and had two children each, it is learnt.

Shantaraju is said to have hanged himself from a tree in the farmland belonging to Shantha's family, while Shantha also allegedly hanged herself from a tree in the backyard of her house late on Thursday night and the incident came to light on Friday morning.

Angered by the incident, family members and relatives of the deceased woman Shantha forcibly entered Shantaraju's house and vandalised it and also set fire to haystack stocked nearby, it is learnt.

Bilikere Police, who rushed to the spot on receiving information, conducted mahazar and registered a case in this regard.

Property near Ambedkar Circle belongs to CSI

Bishop's representatives clarify

A file photo of the meeting held in connection to the property near B.R. Ambedkar Circle in 2016, under the leadership of the then MLA Tanveer Sait and chaired by the then DC C. Shikha.

Mysuru, Feb.9- The property close to the Autorickshaw stand near B.R. Ambedkar (FTS) Circle, belongs to the Church of South India (CSI) and it is not a public property, said the representatives of Bishop Mohan Manoraj — retired Sub-Inspector Mohan Das and Selvin.

The allegation of the residents of Gandhinagar that CSI had encroached upon the public road and a vacant space in front of Karunalaya Church is far from true. All relevant and supporting documents relating to the property are with us, they said.

The Missionaries, who arrived in Mysore in 1856, bought seven acres of land in 1886 and formed a neat layout and named it 'Karunapura.' The sites were distributed to the people connected with the Church here, they said.

This property was transferred to CSI in Bengaluru in 1962-63 and also registered.

When there was a problem created for this property in 2016, a Committee headed by MLA Tanveer Sait and chaired by the then Deputy Commissioner C. Shikha was formed.

A survey was conducted by eight engineers and a surveyor. Excluding the encroached property, it was settled that the remaining 6.33 acres of land belonged to the Church, they said.

This property was lying in disuse and had become a den of illegal activities. In the light of this, on the orders of Bishop Mohan Manoraj, the barbed wire fencing was removed and in its place, the construction of compound had begun 25 days earlier itself. This property fully belongs to CSI and it is not Government property, they clarified once again.

It may be recalled that the residents of Gandhinagar had alleged that the property near auto stand had been encroached by CSI and they had submitted a memorandum through Dr. B.R. Ambedkar Dalita Mahasabha to the Regional Commissioner seeking a thorough investigation to clear the encroachment besides seeking action against erring officials.

Ex-Tahsildar bats for reconstruction of Lansdowne, Devaraja Market Buildings

Mysuru, Feb.9- Retired Tahsildar and SOM's sister concern 'Mysooru Mithra' Columnist Dr. V. Ranganath has endorsed the Mysuru City Corporation's (MCC) decision for demolition and reconstruction of heritage Lansdowne and Devaraja Market buildings in the city.

Dr. Ranganath

Speaking to SOM, Dr. Ranganath said that he welcomes the MCC's decision to reconstruct the two heritage buildings, while retaining all their heritage characteristics.

Pointing out that there will be no problem in demolishing and reconstructing the buildings using modern technology for retaining heritage features, he said that the precarious condition of the buildings pose a threat to human lives.

Referring to the opposition by some who had referred to Vijayapura's Gol Gumbaz monument which has been retained in its original form by rejuvenation works, Dr. Ranganath said that all heritage structures are not like Gol Gumbaz.

Noting that Lansdowne and Devaraja Market buildings are located in the heart of the city, he said that public lives will be in danger if parts of the dilapidated buildings collapse. As such, those opposing the demolition should take note of the threat to public safety, he said. Heritage building allowed to remain as a tourist interest can be restored without much risk like Qutub Minar in Delhi or Gol Gumbaz for example. But not the buildings where thousands of people visit for shopping.

Maintaining that the University Crawford Hall too is a heritage structure, he said that technology has been best utilised in the construction of KSOU buildings with a heritage outlook like the Crawford Hall.

Asserting that the reconstruction of Lansdowne and Devaraja Market buildings using the latest technology will also result in getting more space for public use, he said that the buildings must be so reconstructed with a vision for the next 200 years. "The MCC must take a serious look at the issue and move forward accordingly. Also, at the same time, the MCC must work towards convincing all those who are opposing the demolition," he pointed out.

UoM Research Scholars demand Registrar's removal

Mysuru, Feb.9- The members of the University of Mysore Research Scholars Association have strongly condemned the alleged inhuman attitude of the Registrar Prof. R. Rajanna of the University of Mysore towards Journalism Department's Assistant Professor Dr. N. Mamatha and demanded his removal.

In a press release, the President of the Association, D. Mahadewaswamy Mangala and others have said that Prof. Rajanna claiming that Dr. Mamatha had staged a protest against him without even submitting an application for the Probationary Period Declaration Letter, was nothing but a conspiracy, was far from true.

The Registrar had kept the files relating to Dr. Mamatha for months and hence she was forced to demand her rights by sitting in dharna in front of the Crawford Hall as her human rights were violated.

However, seeing the injustice meted out to her, Vice-Chancellor Prof. G. Hemantha Kumar had immediately asked the Registrar's office to trace her file and called Registrar Prof. Rajanna to his office and asked him to sign and immediately issued Dr. Mamatha Probationary Period Declaration letter, they said.

This humane act of the VC is most laudable. It also showed that if the allegations hurled by the Registrar were true, then why it was that he signed the letter, they have asked in the release.

The members of the Association have urged the Chief Minister, Higher Education Minister and the VC to immediately remove the Registrar, according to the release.

Mysureans go desi at two-day Akki Mela

Open to public at CADA premises till 7 pm tomorrow

MLA S.A. Ramdas, Mayor Pushpalatha Jagannath and others taking a look at the variety of rice and paddy on display at the two-day Desi Akki Mela which was inaugurated at CADA premises this morning. Picture right shows a boy at one of the stalls displaying the paddy art.

Mysuru, Feb.9 (MTY&SR)- A two-day Desi Akki Mela (Rice Fair), which began at the premises of the Command Area Development Authority (CADA) in city this morning, drew a good response from public. The Mela will be open to visitors from 10 am to 7 pm today and tomorrow.

The Mela is jointly organised by Karnataka Agricultural Price Commission (KAPC), Agriculture Department, Mysuru, District Agriculture Training Centre, Naganahalli, Sahaja Samruddha, Batta Ulisi Andolana and Regional Sahakara Savayava Sanghagala Okkuta, Mysuru.

Over 200 native paddy variety growers from across Karnataka, including Mandya, Mysuru and Chamarajanagar districts, have displayed their varieties of desi rice like Karibattha, Karikalave and Navara which have medicinal value. Varieties like Gandhasale, Gamgadale and Jeeriga Samba rice which are the fragrant variety were on sale. They also exhibited Sidda Sanna, which is quite popular in the market due it's taste, aroma and small grain size, Ratnachoodi and Salem Sanna, which are equally exotic in taste and size.

Desi paddy conservers also kept Rajamudi, one of the traditional red rice variety of Old Mysore region and it was one of major attractions of the Mela.

This rice, which was patronised by the "royals" (and hence the nomenclature), will join the league of Basmati and get a Geographical Indication (GI) tag in recognition of its unique qualities, according to the Department of Agriculture and Sahaja Samruddha, an NGO working on conservation of traditional and indigenous varieties of agricultural crops.

Also available at the Mela are jaggery and variety of desi rice flours. People across the city flocked the venue and bought the desi rice ranging from Rs.80 to Rs.150 per kilogram depending upon their needs.

If one is tired of eating the same old anaemic-looking polished rice, then the Mela will be the best place to buy the desi rice.

Speaking after inaugurating the exhibition, Mayor Pushpalatha Jagannath stressed the need to encourage and motivate farmers to grow desi paddy varieties which had nutritional and medicinal benefits.

Inaugurating the stage programme, former Minister MLA S.A. Ramdas said that India had thousands of varieties of rice and more than 800 desi ragi seeds before the Green Revolution but now only few farmers are cultivating. Earlier, Rajamudi and Sannabattha variety rice were eaten by rich only during festival.

He said that Rajamudi was cultivated in large swathes of land in the princely Mysore State ruled by the Wadiyars. However, there is need to promote the paddy conservers and more number of farmers to take up the cultivation of this rice in large scale. The byproducts of this rice are also equally important and beneficial, he added.

A workshop on 'A stable market for Rajamudi and other traditional desi rice varieties through Geographical Indication' was also held. KAPC Chairman Dr. T.N. Prakash Kammardi, Sahaja Samruddha Director G. Krishna Prasad, VC Farm-Mandya Professor Dr. Rajanna, Asst. Agriculture Director of West Bengal Dr. Anupam Paul, Rajamudi Batta Conservator Hoysala S. Appaji and Padmavathamma, Mysuru, Mandya and Chamarajanagar Districts Farmer Federation President Ramesh P. Rangasamudra and Joint Director of Agriculture Mahantheshappa were present.

Mysuru, Feb. 9 (YDS&BCT)- Culture and education cannot be divorced from each other. They are interdependent and the cultural patterns of a society guide its educational patterns. A live example of a heady mix of culture and education was witnessed at Day-1 of Star of Mysore Education Fair yesterday at Maharaja's College Grounds.

The three-day power-packed event, with all its festivities and spirit, is a crowd-puller and on the very first day, it attracted more than 6,000 footfalls. The Fair is generating a genesis of collaborations and co-operation from institutions, faculty, parents and students resulting in information exchange, identification of talent pool and, of course, ways and means of charting a bright career path.

While the day was spent in exchanging ideas, information and career plans, the evening was dedicated to cultural events where students let their hair down and enjoyed to the hilt. At the same time, they thoroughly entertained the audience. The cultural presentation was a combination of dances and plays. A short play that highlighted the evil effects of greed made the audience ponder.

The cultural extravaganza began with a melodious Veda recital and 'Raghuvamsha Sudha Geethe' of Karnatak Music by students of NPS International. Later, students of Beyond Taalas presented Bharatanatyam on 'Mahaganapathim Manasa Smarami' enthralling the audience.

Students of Little Elly School next took over the stage with colourful costumes and presented a dance feature "Bhajanese Dhadak Dhadak" and "Doddavaralla Janaralla, Chikkavarella Konaralla" from the Kannada super hit movie "Guru Shisyaru." The presentation was so real that the audience connected with the performers and recollected the brilliant performance in the movie by Actor Dwarakish and fellow actors.

Later, students of Sharada Public School sang songs of national integrity and songs dedicated to Lord Krishna and Lord Anjaneya. Likewise, students of JSS School, Manasarowar Pushkarini Vidyashrama, Kautilya Vidyalaya, Vidya Vikas, Ideal Jawa Rotary School and Cstop Animation Academy presented various cultural programmes, regaling the audience.

The stage was next taken over by actress Aishwarya Prasad of "Padde Huli" movie and danced to various Kannada movie songs along with a group of children. Her dance for "Ye Hudugi Yaakingaadthi Maathalle Maralu Maadthi" from the movie "Rambo 2" received a huge response.

Four students from JSS Educational Institution presented a short drama on the evil effects of greed of money, the bad effects on one's family and social life. The little children demonstrated how greed pollutes the soul, corrupts religion and destroys youthfulness, spoiling the society.

The students, through their play, character enactment and presentation demonstrated that greed is not merely caring about money and possessions, but caring too much about them.

The show-stopper of the cultural evening was the ramp walk by models of Bradford Aviation.

Great vision helps GSSS soar high

GSSS has contributed to woman empowerment and nation's workforce by providing quality education to girls from all backgrounds. The vision of Rukmini Bai Pandit that education combined with strong moral values is a definite path to the empowerment of women and a great future for our society inspired her to impart values of Bhagavad Gita in tutoring children of Mysore way back in 1940s.

Her son Bharadwaj Srikanta Pandit (B.S. Pandit), Professor in Physics at SJCE, had promised her that he would do whatever was needed to be done to make her vision a reality. Thus, Geetha Shishu Shikshana Sangha (GSSS) was registered as a Society in 1975.

An enthralling Karnatak music concert by Bharat Ratna M.S. Subbulakshmi provided the seed money to start an English Medium School in 1981 that was named Geetha Bharathi School. The Bantwal Madhav Shenoy High School was added in 1986. To meet the demands for Pre-University courses, Badriprasadji Pre-University College was started in 1988.

In 1990s, when Computer Science was in the nascent stage and in great demand, Prof. Pandit gave Mysore a Degree College in 1991 with Computer Science as the subject and provided the best laboratory and faculty for students to pursue their studies. Always futuristic in thoughts, quick to understand the needs of the changing society and provide it, Prof. Pandit established world class institutes.

GSSS Institute of Engineering and Technology for Women (GSSSIETW), an institute unique in purpose was established in 2003 to provide technical education to girls living in far off places. Housed in a sprawling campus of 14 acres, a fabulous structure of international standards with a total built-up area of over four lakh sq.ft, the Institute accommodates well-ventilated spacious classrooms, Departmental Laboratories, Workshop, Library and Information Centre, Edusat Centre, Computer Centre, Meditation Hall, Placement and Training Department and Industry Institute Interaction Centre, Digital Library.

Today, GSSSIETW has contributed to nation's workforce technically-skilled, confident young women engineering graduates numbering nearly 5,000 who are out there making contributions in the fields of technology, research, civil services and entrepreneurship. Like the saying "the greatest oak was once a little nut which held its ground," Geetha Shishu Shikshana Sangha that was once a small sprout in 1981 is now a boundless tree stretching out its branches, catering to educational needs of Pre-Primary children to Doctoral Research.

I will continue to fight for social justice: Siddu

Former CM inaugurates Kanaka Samudaya Bhavan

Mysuru, Feb.9 (SBD&DM)- Maintaining that he has not bowed to anyone in his decades-long political career, former Chief Minister Siddharamaiah has said that he will never stop fighting against those who oppose social justice.

He was speaking after inaugurating Kanaka Samudaya Bhavan at Siddarthanagar yesterday.

Observing that there is no purpose in life if one loses his self-respect, Siddharamaiah asserted that he is a votary of 'AHINDA' and as well as the economically weaker sections of the society.

Noting that those fighting for the cause of social justice and equality should get support from all quarters, he underlined the need for leading a conscientious life.

Pointing out that the caste system gets eradicated if economic and social equality between castes comes to an end, the former CM opined that no community can grow without a political clout.

Stressing on the need to understand facts after getting to know of the surroundings, Siddharamaiah maintained that he played a big role in organising the community.

Recalling the days when he served as the President of Kalidasa Students Union in early 1970s, he said that he used to visit every college then for organising the community students.

Stating that Kanakadasa Jayanti became a major annual event after the 500th Kanakadasa Jayanti celebrations in 1988, he said that he used to visit every Kanaka Jayanti programme which he was invited.

Noting that Kaginele Gurupeetha was set up in 1992, he recalled the growth of the Mutt over the years.

Former Minister C.H. Vijayashankar, in his address, said that just as Siddharamaiah is a former Chief Minister, he (Siddu) can also be called as the future Chief Minister.

Alleging that Siddharamaiah was denied his second five-year term by certain vested interests, he recounted the contributions of Siddharamaiah during his five-year rule as the Chief Minister.

Former MLA M.K. Somashekar said that Siddharamaiah had worked for the poor from all communities, without limiting himself to Kuruba community.

Pointing out that Siddharamaiah had sanctioned grants for construction of over 700 Samudaya Bhavan of all communities, Somashekar wished that Siddharamaiah becomes the CM again.

Kaginele Kanaka Gurupeetha's Sri Niranjanananandapuri Swamiji, who graced the occasion, said that Siddharamaiah's large-heartedness has been the cause for the formation of the coalition Government.

Maintaining that Siddharamaiah holds key for the survival of JD(S)-Congress coalition Government, the Seer said that the community was always behind Siddharamaiah.

Lauding the former CM for announcing various welfare schemes for the poor, the Seer opined that although there may be some politicians like Siddharamaiah, there are no personalities like him.

Sri Niranjananandapuri Swamiji also cautioned State BJP Chief and former CM B.S. Yeddyurappa of making unsavoury remarks against Siddharamaiah.

Kaginele Shakha Mutt Seer Sri Shivanandapuri Swamiji, MLA Dr. Yathindra Siddharamaiah, Mayor Pushpalatha Jagannath, former MLA H.P. Manjunath, Corporators Roopa, Ashwini, Ananthu and Gopi, Community leaders Prabhuswamy, Ramachandrappa, K. Marigowda, Ravishnakar, T.B. Chikkanna, Puttaswamy and others were present.

A good Budget: Siddu

Former Chief Minister has said that the Budget presented by CM Kumaraswamy on Friday was a good one. Speaking to press persons yesterday, Siddharamaiah said that although he was yet to go through the Budget in detail, overall it can be said that it is a good one.

Referring to the audio clips expose by Kumaraswamy, which are said to have conversations on 'Operation Lotus' carried out by State BJP leaders to poach Congress and JD(S) MLAs, the former CM said that the audio clips exposed the true colour of State BJP Chief B.S. Yeddyurappa, who all along had maintained that the BJP was not carrying out 'Operation Lotus.'

Rohit Sharma becomes leading T20I run-scorer

Auckland, Feb.9- Rohit Sharma was on a record-breaking spree during the second Twenty20 International (T20I) between India and New Zealand in Auckland on Friday.

Rohit Sharma, with 2,288 runs, overtook New Zealand batsman Martin Guptill, who has 2,272 runs, to become the leading run-scorer in the shortest format of the game and broke several other records during his knock at Eden Park.

With 20 fifty-plus scores in T20Is, Rohit Sharma now also holds the record for most such scores in T20Is. His fifty in the second T20I helped him go past Virat Kohli, who has 19. Rohit Sharma became just the third cricketer to hit 100 T20I sixes.

Only two cricketers have hit more T20I sixes than Rohit Sharma. He has 102 sixes now while Chris Gayle and Guptill both have 103. Rohit Sharma is now in fourth place on the list of most sixes in international cricket. He has 349. Only Shahid Afridi and Gayle (476), Brendon McCullum (398) and Sanath Jayasuriya (352) have hit more.

Rohit Sharma's total of 349 sixes in international cricket (ODIs, T20Is, Tests) has helped him go past M.S. Dhoni for the Indian record for most sixes in international cricket.

Although Rohit was dismissed for a 29-ball fifty at Auckland, he made quite an impact before he got out in India's chase of 159 to level the T20I series.
